AMY STALLARD

It's been a great year, and you've been a great class president, but look who was the president before you! I'm so glad my high school years are ending, but it's getting sad. I've made lots of good friends, like you, that I'll soon not have.

Lots of leaves,

CLASS DEF 179

with you as had lunch with to see ya.
bye
Athena

[illegible][illegible]

Amy, we're through - finished!

It feels great. Thanks alot for being our buffer against the incompetents who run this school + school-system. I couldn't have put up with them.

you did great (excuse the grammar) with such little support. It's been great being in GOTH (even if you were on the other team!) It's great to be able to talk to somebody who shares my views about Doc + Keith. Remember the painting rumor. I know you'll make a great nationalist. But most importantly you'll always be a good friend. You need no luck - Best wishes.

Love Jennifer Cowen Jennifer

Amy,

It has been good to get to know you better this year. Remember Keith's English class and all the fun (!!!) we had. Good luck next year in college.

Love,

Cheryl

Very, very, Amy,

What can I say?

Very, what leadership, what so get in, what a year. Very, I've really enjoyed knowing you. You have such a dry wit. May I count of anything else except hope life looks up a bit.

Good luck and all that stuff. Remember our great in one. Keith's class. Whatever.

I know you must be glad that school is out, and you are no longer in danger of being impeached. But seriously, you've been a great class pres. and I'm glad I'm part of your senior class. By the way, if you take Shakespeare in college, they will probably give you the roles that get killed off quickly. But don't let it get you down. Good luck!

Luis Interiano

Hey Pres, you had quite a job this year with our apathetic class. But I believe we have finally made it. Lots of luck with your life long pursuits.

Love Margie

Amy
 1 noobles troubles everything and ~~what~~ is your get more than your share of the headaches it's over for a break. You we can all use to see Brett & sundry others again (plenty of bright sides to this graduation bit) & don't have a rest - this summer take on too much in college.
 Love,
 Laurie

Not many people could have made thru this year as our Pres. Great job.
 Keep up your work Best of luck in the credits world.
 Love,
 Laurie

Amy,
 What can I say?
 alot! Its been so much fun and alot of pain in the neck.
 Ask Amy - Ask Alia
 we're just so popular that everyone wants to talk to us. It was fun though. Our famous dinners, Prom (it turned out fantastic - I think I can't really remember), Graduation trip, and its almost over now - no more responsibility!!!
 Thanks so much and its great knowing someone who cares so much.
 Have great fun next year cause I know I will. Keep away from Gonzaleys. Try get to you after awhile.
 Love always

Benjamin Franklin
Senior High School
New Orleans, Louisiana

FOREWORD

What is Franklin all about?

In producing this yearbook, we have tried to capture this meaning and to convey this essential thought. We have witnessed the opportunity to exercise our independence, opened our minds to new ideas, tested their power to make decisions, and developed a confidence in their ability to meet any challenge. We are constantly involved in our academic environment as well as our living one. Around us we have a remarkable and stimulating city with great pride. The old and the new are coupled side by side; its livelihood is based on beauty, charm, and industrial success but more important is its prominent individual character made up of diverse and delightful people. We view Franklin in much the same way.

This environment, the people, and the challenges are expressed and combined in this collective reflection upon our year at Franklin.

Thinkers help other people think, for they formulate what others are thinking. No person writes or thinks alone — thought is in the air, but its expression is necessary to create a tangible Spirit of the Times. — Elbert Hubbard

APPETIZER

Human felicity is produced not so much by great pieces of good fortune that seldom happen, as by little advantages that occur every day. — Benjamin Franklin

True happiness arises, in the first place, from the enjoyment of one's self; and, in the next, from the friendship and conversation of a few select companions.

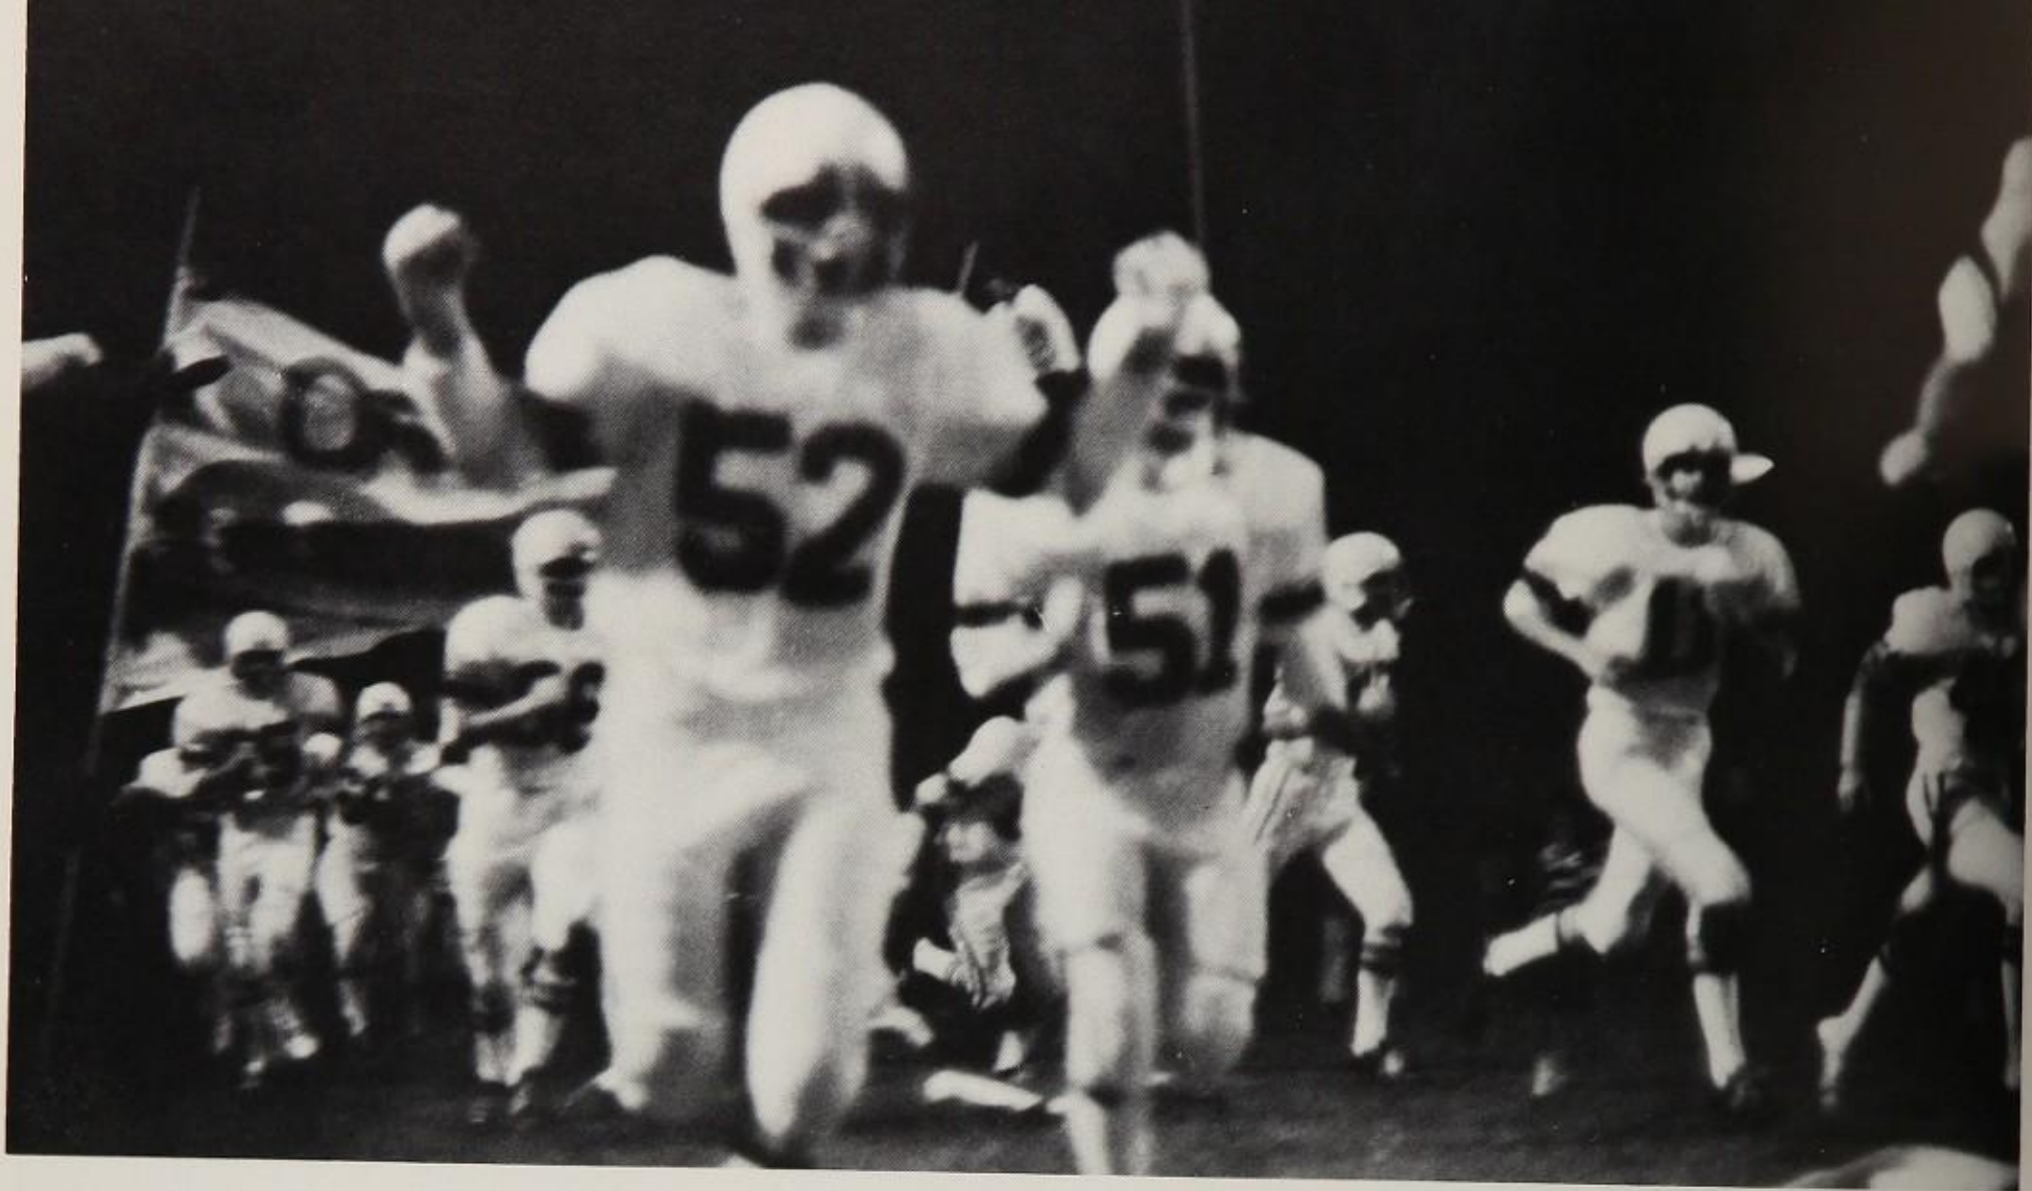

— Joseph Addison

How dear to this heart are the scenes of my schooling

When fond recollection presents them to view.

— Samuel
Woodworth

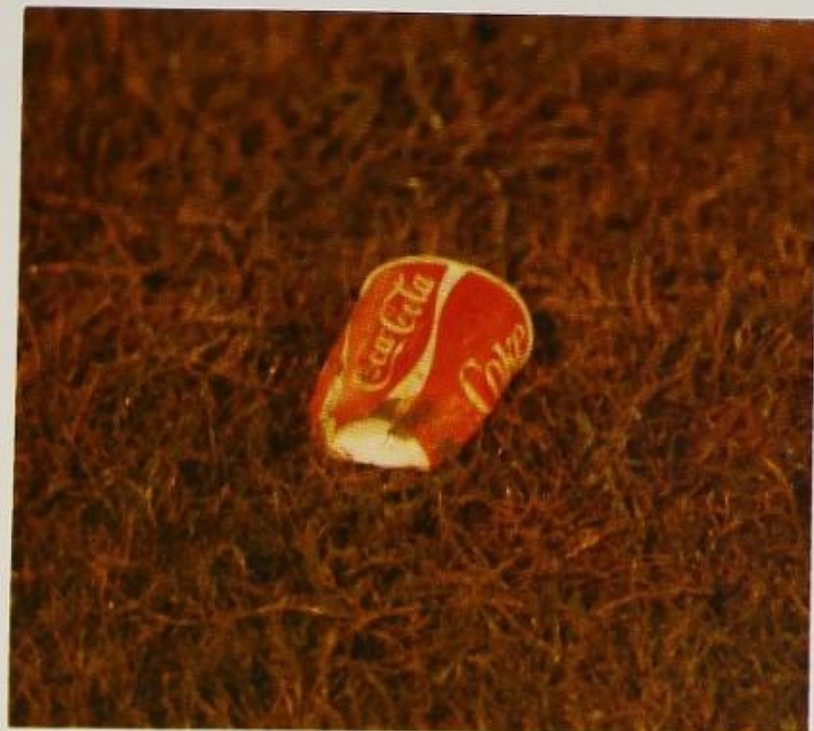

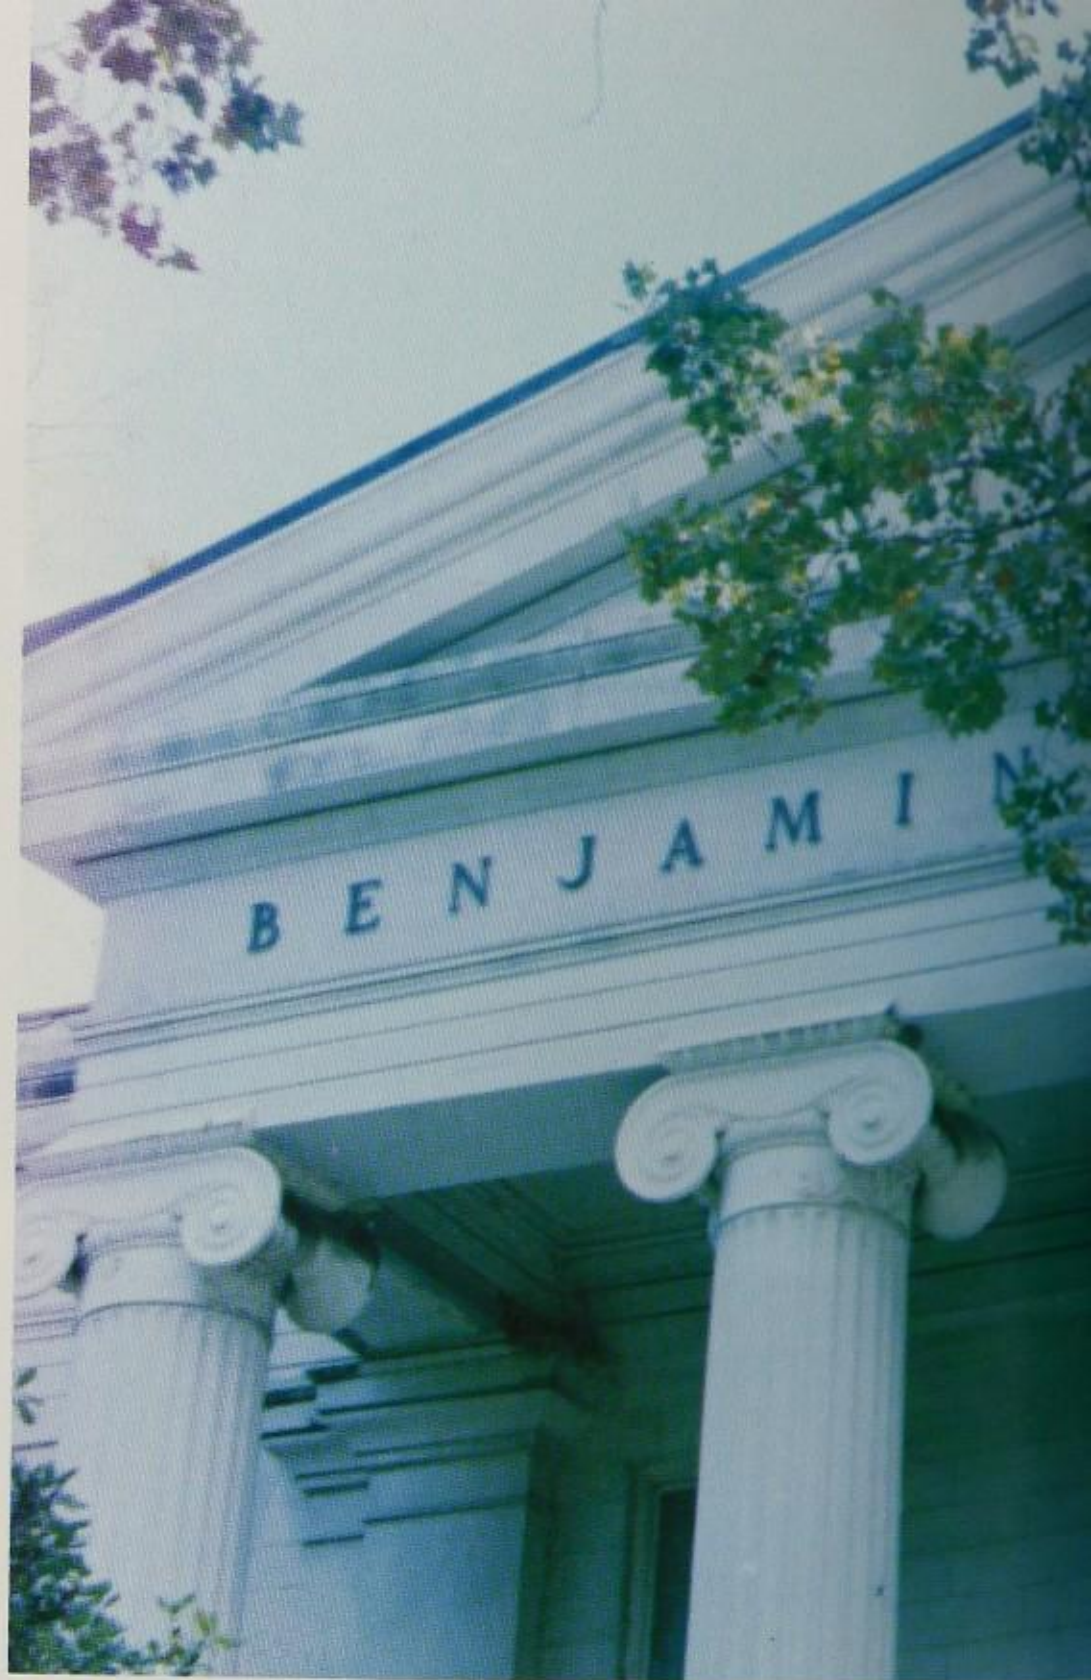

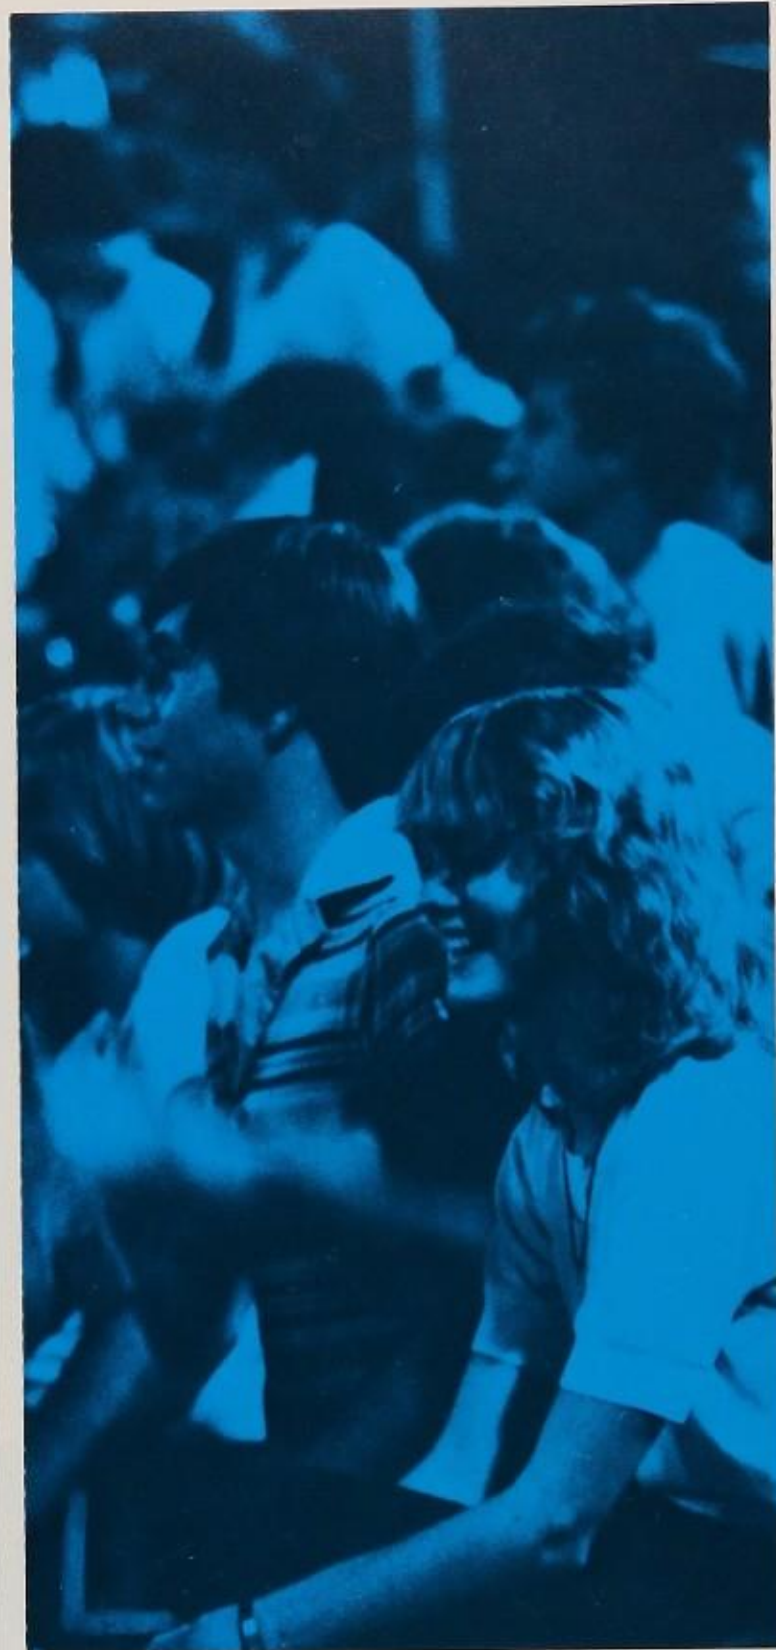

All men see the same objects, but do not equally understand them. Intelligence is the tongue that discerns and tastes them.
— Thomas Traherne

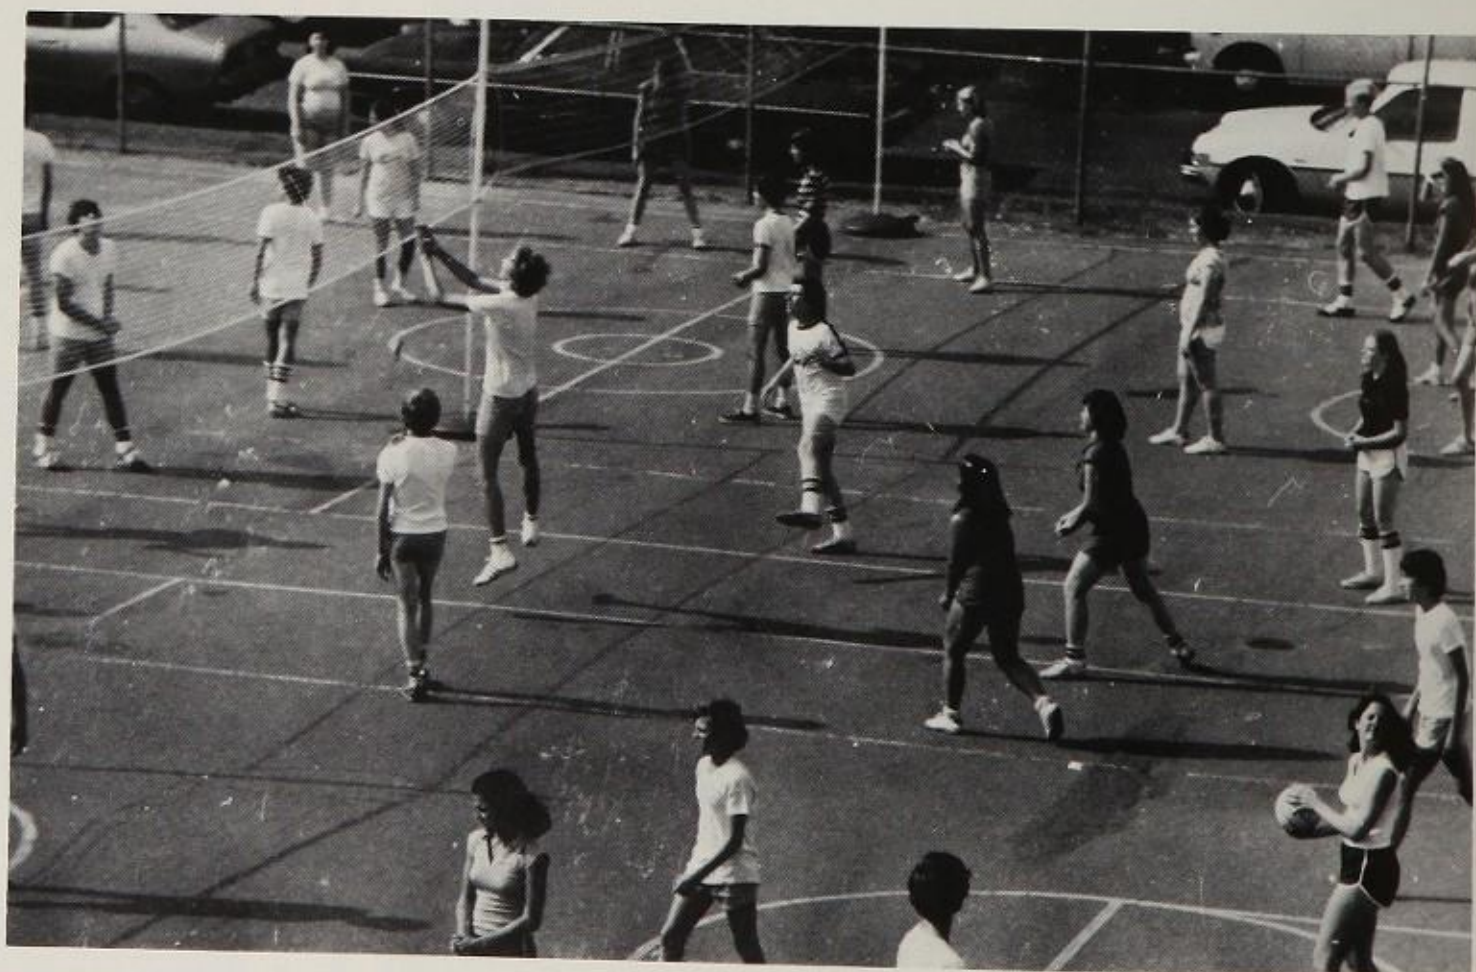

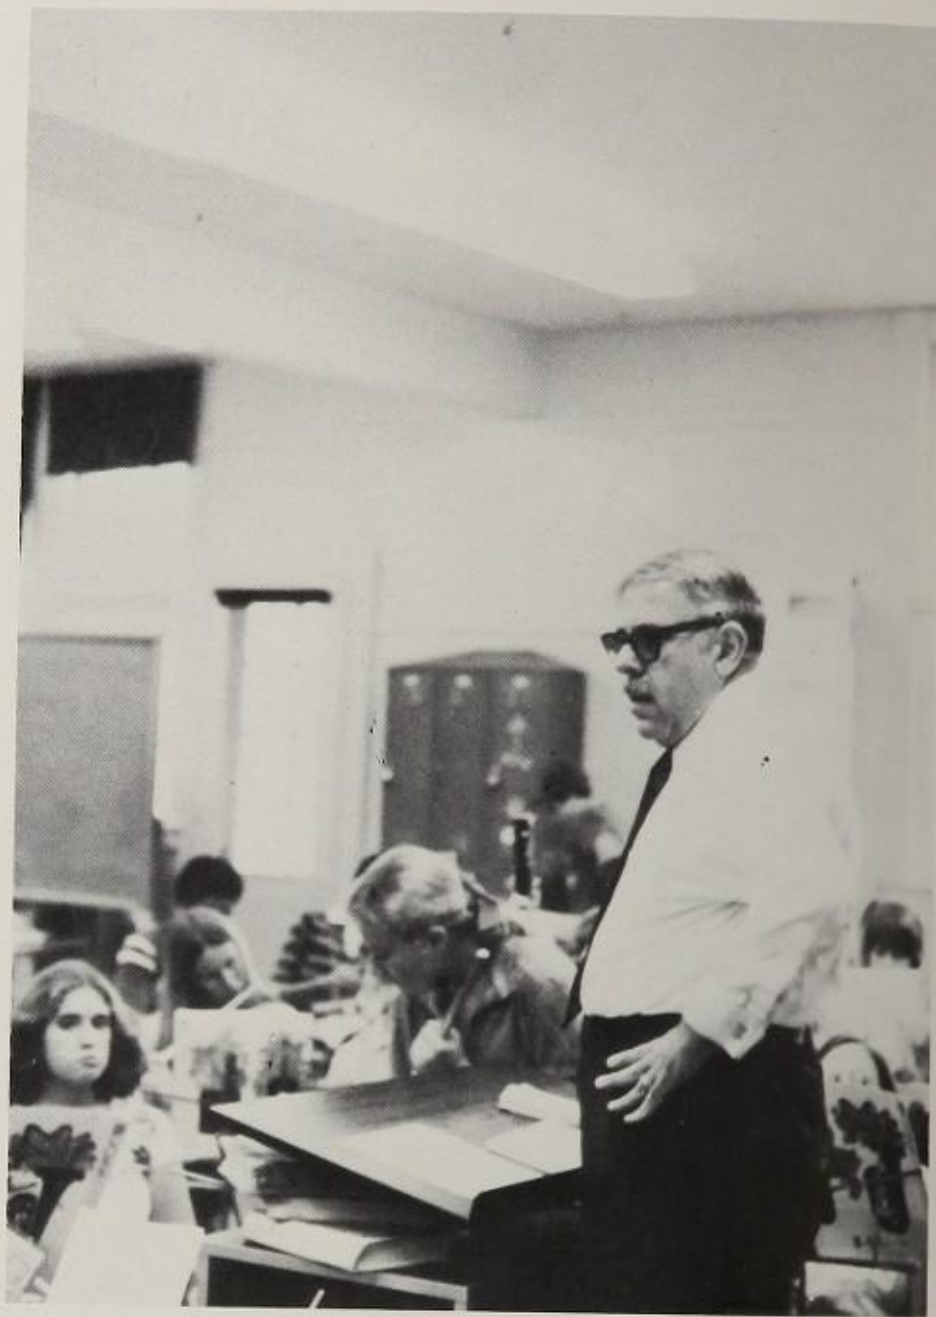

. . . born with the gift of laughter and a sense that the world is mad. — Rafael Sabatini

Every great and commanding moment in the annals of the world is the triumph of some enthusiasm. — Ralph Waldo Emerson

Youth, large, lusty, loving — Youth, full of grace, force, fascination . . . — Walt Whitman

I announce the great individual, fluid as Nature, chaste, affectionate, compassionate, fully armed . . . — Walt Whitman

Two roads diverged in a wood, and I — I took the one less traveled by, And that has made all the difference.

— Robert Frost

Entrée

Sit down and feed and welcome to our table.

you remember me - you & I always remember you. Thanks for all the help this week - (I know I look really gross, but...
I think you worked really hard this hard, and I'm proud of you! Being our only girl president and everything... God, Amy, this week has been something. Even though you're not a very good actress - a fault for which I am perfectly able to forgive you - you've been a great officer and a good friend.
I suppose that you're the only person who ever threw up after looking at me.

Have a nice life, and I'll see you at class reunions, parties, etc. I expect you to give me your first born - no reason, just kidding.
When in times of trial and tribulation and mean school principals who don't let you accomplish anything without a battle, remember that we all love you. In the words of John Lennon and Paul McCartney, "When you find yourself in the thick of it, help yourself to a bit of what is all around you, silly girl!" All love and luck forever. Love, Carey

Dearest Amy,

I wrote here for two reasons. ① Notice the big Black square up top and ② so when you look at National Achievement you can say you knew a smart Black girl. It has really been fun being in Typing with you and it was truly exciting being a Homeroom Rep. I really think you're a crazy, sweet person. Lots of luck in the future (I hope you get married) Always keep a smile on your face because "Ain't it funny how the way you feel shows on your face and no matter how you try to hide it'll state your case." EWF

Love,

Natasha

Army.

My three years here at Franklin have really been something, and I'm glad to say that you added some liveliness to them. (Believe me, they needed it).

The I will never forget Spirit Week this year, and I doubt you will either.

J

And then there's G.A.A. - what a laugh!! You always falling, tripping, etc. And let's not forget your burnt hand!

U

You really looked cute playing volleyball "one hand". And my freshmen year you & these were "such friends" in G.A.A., and now - well... are you a member or not?

N

I

Love ya,

Cindy

Many thanks to Mr. Dick Juge for his help in the completion of the ad section.

Amg,

You might be a good pres., but you still are a strange person. I hope you ^{can} enjoy the success that you have had here, I know you will. Good luck! I hope to see you next year! ?

Love,

Karen

Long live the Army!

Guess who!

Thme,

I hate signing yearbooks with a passion - but I guess I didn't have much choice! You were about the first person I knew it ~~franklin~~ & you really made me feel like a typical freshman! I'm fed to say I outgrew that and then you treated me like a typical underclassman.

Finally I became an upper-classman but to you I was a "lower upper!" Well, today I become a senior & there ain't nothing you can say to me! (No, not even "a me high school student!")

You know I'm only kidding you're a really good friend! I know I'll see you this summer & Good luck Always,

Love,

Karen

P.S. Remember Spirit Week!

Amy,

Hey — like I haven't known you — really — since you started dating Gary, and even now I really don't know you — but you're cute anyway — and may the force be with you!
Love forever and ever

Vincent D'Amico

You were a hell of a lot of fun at the prom when you went with my best friend Gary. I have to thank you for your enormous amount of work and all the fun you gave the senior class of '79. I'll remember you always and don't get' buzzed too much.

Love,
Amy (LINK)

I'll always remember you as "killer blutz". I wonder how you got that name.
 Could it be because of your skills when it comes to sports? You've been a good president, even though you did have an apathetic class to work with. I don't think you could have done any better. Remember Shakespeare and all the typecasting. I think Mr. Keith was trying to tell you something when you were killed 11 times in Richard III. Well, good luck in college. I hope we always remain friends. Keep in touch.

Love,
 Nancy

Hi Amy,
 I just realized I've never seen you smile. You're always sleepwalking, disgusted, or just embarrassed. Boy, you must lead a real exciting life Amy! Anyway, goodbye + good luck. It's been a pleasure knowin' ya.

Phyllis

Dear Amy,
 Thanks for all the things that you did for our apathetic class! You are a really good President.
 I wish that I had gotten a chance to know you better. I love your sense of humor!
 Good luck at College
 next year!
 Love,
 Sigurd

My Baby! I'll bet you're happier than most to get out of here! I will always remember you and your super sense of humor or drunken (prom?)
 smile. I wish you the best of luck!
 Be good!
 Love you!
 Gaby

Dear Amy
 Even if you didn't care, you were a good President.
 It makes for putting a laugh in my day on the Chas - but was-in "fun". Best of luck in the pressure field of nutrition at school next year - be sure to keep that 3.0 average. Never forget all the fun with our famous Keep in touch!
